

Barbara Van Gorp, Vice-President Employee Benefits

Barbara is a native of Neenah, Wisconsin. She started in the Employee Benefits insurance arena in 1979, working for McClone Insurance Group. She continued to develop her career in group insurance with several companies, including Marketing Director for Community Care Managed Healthcare of Oklahoma in Tulsa, and Vice President of Sales and Service with Network Health Plan in Menasha.

In 2004, Barbara came back to McClone Insurance Group as Vice President of Employee Benefits where she leads a team of sales and customer service representatives specializing in individual and group benefits throughout our four locations (Fox Cities, Oshkosh, Fond du Lac and Milwaukee).

Barbara is a member of the Wisconsin Association for Health Underwriters, an Ambassador for the Fox Cities Chamber of Commerce, and a United Way Volunteer. Barbara was instrumental in founding the Well City-Fox Cities effort, and works with McClone clients on their wellness initiatives.
