

Barbara Van Gorp, Vice-President Operations

Barbara is a native of Neenah, Wisconsin. She started in the employee benefits insurance arena over 30 years ago, working for McClone Insurance Group. Barbara continued to develop her career in group insurance with several carriers and agencies, including Marketing Director for Community Care HMO of Oklahoma and Vice President of Sales and Service with Network Health Plan in Menasha.

In 2004, Barbara came back to McClone as Vice President of Employee Benefits. Currently, Barbara serves as Vice President of Operations for Commercial Lines and Personal Lines, as well as Benefits, where she leads a team of sales and customer service representatives throughout our four locations (Fox Cities, Oshkosh, Fond du Lac and Milwaukee).

Barbara currently serves as President and founding member of Well City Fox Cities and serves as a United Way of the Fox Cities volunteer.
