

Matt Prickette, Commercial Agent

Matt graduated from the University of Wisconsin, Stevens Point with a Bachelor of Science Degree for Communications in 2001. After graduation, Matt managed a restaurant and developed and maintained a landscaping business until 2005. In 2005, Matt started with Associated Financial Group where he specialized as a property and casualty insurance broker. Matt joined McClone Insurance Group in the fall of 2007.

Currently, Matt is providing an “outside the box” approach to traditional insurance consulting with his focus on federal compliance and OSHA consultation. The focus with his clients is to provide creative ideas that will apply to their specific needs to help establish a long-term relationship.

Matt is working toward his Certified Insurance Counselor (CIC) designation. He is also a member of the Green Bay area SHRM (Society for Human Resource Management).
