

Steve Uslabar, Benefits Consultant

---

Steve Uslabar graduated from the University of Wisconsin Stout in 1991 with a degree in Hotel and Restaurant Management, and spent 10 years running successful operations in Keystone Colorado, Chicago Illinois, and multi unit operations in Minneapolis, Minnesota. In 2001, a transition to sales allowed for a move back to Wisconsin. He and his family now live in Appleton.

For the past 3 years, Steve has been the Large Group Executive for Network Health Plan, part of the Affinity Health System. The market knowledge and group health experience gained at Network Health Plan, coupled with the framework of operations, give Steve fresh perspective to create unique strategies for McClone clients. Options are analyzed and implemented into solutions that focus on multi-year goals.

Steve is a member of various organizations, including WAHU and Fox Valley SHRM.